

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I can now come home from work and not have to get up to answer the phone from an unwanted solicitor. The law has been very effective. I would get throughout one day at least 2-3 unwanted calls. Now I only get 1-2 calls a week. Don't mess with a good thing for us in Indiana. Jo Ann Aguilar